1. General LI*, an anti-Chiang leader in Hongkong, has offered to send forces into Indochina to combine with the Vietnamese in driving out the French, on condition that these Chinese forces be permitted to settle in Cambodia. The offer, conveyed by an emissary of General LI, was made to Phra Phiset Phanit, Free Cambodian leader, through a Vietnamese.
2. Phra Phiset, who is anti-Chinese, afforded no encouragement to the proposal. He is preparing to leave Bangkok to rejoin his men in the field.
